Neil M. McCosker, PE

Harris & Associates names Neil McCosker as Chief Operating Officer.

Neil began his career with Harris in 1996 and was promoted to Deputy Director of Construction Management in 1999. He has increased and held a variety of leadership positions since then, including appointment to Harris' Board of Directors in 2000.

As Chief Operating Officer, McCosker will have the primary responsibility of representing nearly 500 employees throughout the Western United States. This includes overseeing, monitoring and reporting on company-wide operations, supervising and supporting regional management teams, and promoting effective project management practices and results.

Did you know?

Neil is an avid hunter and fisherman. He thoroughly enjoys spending time in the outdoors with his family and friends.

“Neil is respected company-wide, has a strong sense of integrity and ethics and knows the importance of teamwork and motivating employees. His commitment to Harris and its employees makes him a natural fit for this role.”
